1. Welcome Message from the Co-Chairs, APMAA 2015 Conference

Welcome and Greetings from APMAA 2015 Conference Co-Chairs

The 2015 Asia Pacific Management Accounting Association Conference will take place at Udayana and Warmadewa Universities, Bali, Indonesia on October 26th to 29th, 2015. The theme of APMAA 2015 Conference is "Management Accounting for Sustainable Development". Our aim is to provoke discussion about important issues in management accounting, especially sustainable development.

For local Professional Accountants, the Indonesian Institute of Accountants (IAI) has agreed to give recognition of 20 CPE hours for this conference.

Please visit <http://apmaa2015bali.com> to get more information about this conference. Should you still have some questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

We look forward to seeing you all and welcome to Bali.

2. Call for Papers: 2015 Annual Conference

Theme: Management Accounting for Sustainable Development
October 26th – 29th, 2015
Venue: Udayana University and Warmadewa University, Bali,
Indonesia

APMAA 2015 will be hosted by six Indonesian universities, with the following main hosts: Trisakti University, Jakarta; University of Merdeka, Malang; Udayana University, Bali; Warmadewa University, Bali; Hasanuddin University, Makassar; and Mercu Buana University, Jakarta.

The issue of sustainable development has become a popular topic. The concept of sustainable development is about how development meets present and future needs.

Based on that, when we discuss sustainable development, it means we discuss improving the standard of living by protecting human health, conserving the environment, using resources efficiently and advancing long-term economic competitiveness. All activities require the integration of environmental, economic and social priorities into policies and programs and need for actions at all levels, including citizens, businesses and governments.

Considering the above matter, the 11th Asia Pacific Management Accounting Association (APMAA) Conference is dedicated to increase the role of management accounting for sustainable development.

The theme of the APMAA 2015 Conference is Management Accounting for Sustainable Development. The conference seeks, especially, papers that address the complex challenges of sustainable development at local, regional and global level. We seek participation from those involved in research, policy, practice and business across international sustainable development sectors. The main aim of the conference is to share and identify practical, evidence-based solutions to sustainable development challenges, particularly those increasing the role of management accountant in this area.

We hope the conference can mobilize the expertise of the scientific and technical communities in academia, civil society and the private sector.

We welcome paper submissions in any area of management accounting. Let us discuss management accounting issues for our better future while enjoying the beauty of Bali Island. To all 2015 APMAA participants from all around the world, we are looking forward to warmly welcoming you to Bali Island, Indonesia, on October 26th – 29th, 2015.

The general theme for this conference is “Management Accounting for Sustainable Development.” However, manuscripts may encompass any topical area of management accounting and they can be theoretical, teaching-based or practice-oriented. Papers are welcomed in all of the following areas:

- Management Accounting and Control
- Management Accounting for Multinational Enterprises
- Management Accounting for State-owned Companies and Non-profit Organizations
- Management Accounting and Culture
- Financial Reporting
- Sustainability Reporting
- Integrated Reporting
- Shariah Accounting
- Internal control and Accountability: Professional and Business Ethics
- Corporate Governance
- Risk Management
- Intellectual Capital and Knowledge Management
- Social and Environmental Accounting
- Methodological and Theoretical Issues in Management Accounting
- Management Accounting Education
- Management Accounting History

It should be noted:

- Papers published elsewhere are not eligible for submission. Preference will be given to recent papers that have not previously been presented at major conferences.
- Papers will be double-blind reviewed. Author(s) of accepted papers must register for the conference. At least one of the main authors is required to register for the conference by October 1st 2015 and to present the work at the corresponding session.

MANUSCRIPT FORMATTING

- All manuscripts should be in Times New Roman, font size 12, double-spaced with an abstract of 200-300 words. Include up to 5 keywords. An abstract should be presented on a separate page immediately preceding the text.
- Manuscripts should be as concise as the subject and research method permit. The length of text should be over 5,000 but not exceed 10,000 words.
- All papers will be double-blind reviewed. To promote anonymous review, authors should not identify themselves directly or indirectly in their paper. Single authors should not use the editorial “we.” Referencing should follow the APA style (Refer to <http://www.apastyle.org>).
- The cover page should contain the title of the paper (all bold capitals), the author’s name (first name, initial(s), and family name), title and affiliation, fax and phone numbers, and email address.
- Please indicate clearly the corresponding author.

3. Call for Papers: 2015 Doctoral Colloquium

A Doctoral Colloquium will be held in conjunction with the APMAA 2015 Annual Conference. Doctoral students and candidates are hereby invited to present and discuss their preliminary results or work-in-progress. The discussants comprise of a group of international Professors.

Doctoral students interested in participating in the doctoral colloquium should submit a single PDF file consisting of:

1. An introductory letter in which you indicate what you wish to obtain from the doctoral colloquium and what you will be bringing to the doctoral colloquium.
2. A one page research statement on the research you will pursue. If you are at the doctoral dissertation stage, this statement should focus on the dissertation.
3. Your CV.
4. A letter of recommendation from your primary dissertation advisor, who should state what you can contribute as well as gain from the doctoral consortium.
5. Your paper (The text should be about 4,000- 8,000 words.)

The main objective of the APMAA 2015 Doctoral Colloquium is to offer an opportunity to PhD students to receive high-quality feedback from external reviewers and to directly interact with peers, exchange ideas, discuss concepts, and establish (in)formal cooperation with various research groups. Doctoral students and candidates at all stages are welcome to submit a thesis-position paper, but preference will be given to students in the earlier stages of their Doctoral work. Participants will be expected to give short and informal presentations of their work during the Colloquium, to be followed by a panel-like discussion. The submitted paper should clearly state:

- The original key idea/hypothesis of the thesis
- The problem domain and the specific problem addressed
- An overview of related work in the area of the Doctoral work
- Methodological approach
- Research carried out
- The expected contributions (in line with the field of study)

Paper Submission:

The deadline for full paper submissions is July 15th, 2015.

To submit a paper, go to the CMT Conference Submission Site for "2015 Annual Conference, Asia-Pacific Management Accounting Association" at
